Table 1: National plan and strategies in Cyprus

National plan and strategies
1. CYPRUS ASYLUM SERVICE (It is a service of Cyprus government which decides and implement the national plan for refugees) Briefly, the Cypriot legislation on asylum provides that the Asylum Service of the Ministry of Internal Affairs examines the applications for international protection of refugees, while the Refugee Reviewing Authority examines asylum seekers whose applications are rejected. Until the final decision on the asylum application is made, the asylum seeker has the right to: • Reside legally and freely in Cyprus • Seek employment in the agriculture and livestock farming (only after six months have passed) • Receive public assistance through the Social Welfare Office to demonstrate the "attestation" • Receive free medical care (based on annual income) • Attend school (unaccompanied minors or minor children of asylum seekers). http://www.asylumaware.eu/en/νόμοι-δικαιώματα/κυπριακή-δημοκρατία/ http://www.moi.gov.cy/moi/asylum/asylumservice.nsf/index_en/index_en?OpenDocument
