

Table 1: National and regional especial services for refugees

NAME OF THE SERVICE	SHORT DESCRIPTION
UNHCR http://www.unhcr.org.tr/
Republic of Turkey Ministry Disaster and Emergency Management Authority (AFAD)	Turkey’s Disaster and Emergency Management Authority, which has been coordinating the country’s response to the humanitarian crisis, houses close to 260,000 Syrian nationals in 26 temporary housing facilities equipped with schools, hospitals and athletic facilities. In addition to addressing residents’ basic needs, AFAD encourages the refugee community to participate in camp management through elections and heals the wounds of war by providing professional training to residents.
Republic Of Turkey Ministry Of Interior Directorate General For Migration Management http://www.goc.gov.tr/Main/	The purpose of the establishment of the Directorate General is to ensure that the studies in this field is managed by the mechanisms open to innovation and international cooperation; having expertise, following up-to-date information and developments closely; in brief, the mechanisms which can keep up with the dynamic pattern of the processes
The Turkish Red Crescent http://www.kizilay.org.tr/	From the time of its establishment in 1868, the Turkish Red Crescent, besides contributing to the development of social welfare has been providing, presenting and offering various and important services for social solidarity such as shelter and protection to the poor and needy, aids for nourishment and health care , blood, disaster operations, international aids, social services, health, first aid, education and youth, housing, immigration and refugee protection as well as operating mineral water facilities. he Turkish Red Crescent’s Immigration and Refugee Services Directorate provides services to the refugees who take shelter in our country in their entrances and exits and housing and shelters and at the stage of their deportation. The Turkish Red Crescent, with the addition of Immigration and Refugee Services Directorate to its body, provides, in its centers, the services in the foreigners entrances to Turkey, shelters and housing and sending them back. In addition to these, it assists the related public authorities in meeting the needs of the refugees taking shelter in Turkey, their shelters, nourishment, health, education and other needs. Especially during the last five years, due to the chaos in Syria, the Turkish Red Crescent assists the public institutions in meeting the needs of the Syrians who have taken shelter in Turkey and are guests in 23 camps today, in their housing and shelters, nourishment and other needs. Besides, projects are being developed with the aids and donations of the sharers and donators to improve the living conditions of the refugees in the camps

The Association For Solidarity With Asylum Seekers And Migrants

<http://en.sgdd.info/>

The Association for Solidarity with Asylum Seekers and Migrants was established in Ankara on December 22, 1995 as a non-profit and non-governmental organization.

The primary goal of SGDD-ASAM is to create solutions to the problems that refugees and asylum seekers encounter in Turkey, to help them to fulfill their primary needs and to support them to provide access for fundamental rights and services. Since its establishment, SGDD-ASAM has been providing psycho-social support for asylum seekers and refugees coming from conflict zones. SGDD-ASAM aims to attract the relevant authorities' attention to the problems of performs of refugees and asylum seekers by carrying our awareness raising activities.

Today, SGDD-ASAM carries out its works with its expert staff consisting of the personnel for case workers, psychologists, social workers, health educators and translators in 41 provinces with 46 offices.

SGDD-ASAM provides services to refugees and asylum seekers without discrimination on the grounds of language, religion, sex, race, sexual orientation and political ideology. Besides SGDD-ASAM contributes to the academic studies by analysing national and international crises for the purpose of forecasting national and international migration movements.

SGDD-ASAM is the implementing partner of United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) Turkey Office and a member of both Anna Lindh Euro-Mediterranean Foundation for the Dialogue between Cultures and UNITED for Intercultural Action